Wyatt Tennyson of Bemidji named Young Snowmobiler of the Year.

The Minnesota United Snowmobilers Association (MnUSA) is proud to announce the recipient of the 2015 Young Snowmobiler of the Year is Wyatt Tennyson of Bemidji.

Wyatt has been involved in snowmobiling and the North Country Snowmobile Club from a very young age. Wyatt has been very helpful in planning and executing club functions. He assisted in the club's award winning parade entry in the Night We Light Parade. He has assisted with trail stops and membership drives at the local dealership which resulted with many new members joining the club. He is very active in youth snowmobile training and helping new young riders enjoy the sport.

Wyatt's physical strength and agility has been a great asset as he has helped older members in building the trail bridge and helping other snowmobilers when their sleds get stuck. He is also a great help to his family as he assists with their Adopt-A-Trail section on the Buena Vista trail near their home.

Wyatt's helpfulness, encouragement and training of young snowmobilers are why he is MnUSA's 2015 Young Snowmobiler of the year.
